

Privacy Policy

We may collect data from you through newsletter sign ups, web forms, twitter advertisements and cookies.

A cookie is a small text file that gets stored on your device. Our website uses cookies to distinguish you from other users of our website. Cookies also provide us with information about how this website is used so we can keep it as up-to-date, relevant and error-free as possible.

We may also monitor traffic to our site and collect the following information:

- What kind of demographics are visiting our site
- The referring website from which you accessed our site
- The time and date that our site is visited at

This data is not traceable back to you, and we will only ever use it to make ongoing improvements to our website and to see our most popular sources of business.
